Dear Sir/Madam

Lawn Section Grave Deeds.

Please find enclosed, your Deed of Grant.

The Deed of Grant is a legal document which grants to you the exclusive right of burial. Please keep it safe as you may need to produce it at some time in the future.

The grave which you have purchased is situated in a section of the cemetery which is designated a lawn section. The erection of a suitable headstone is allowed but the planting of shrubs and plants is not permitted as these will restrict maintenance work.

Should you require any further information please contact Barnsley Crematorium Office, telephone 206053. The staff there will be pleased to explain any details.

Yours faithfully

J.A.Reid,
Director of Leisure and Amenities.

Dear Mr. Clarke,

We hope you and your family are all in good health and thankyou for your kind letter written on Christmas Eve.

Just a line to inform you of the situation at the moment regarding Sally's last Bills.

We are at the moment trying desperatley to get her monies released from the National Savings in Glasgow, although she actually signed the account closure before she passed away (as we expected a delay) the N/S still need everything in triplicate as usual. They now want a copy of the Funeral Expenses etc.

I Have therefore asked Mr. Hadfield the Funeral Director, to arrange a Headstone as we spoke about and am awaiting a new bill for this so that we can also send this to the N/S. If the monies are not spent the Government will keep the rest, so it may as well be spent on Sally's memorial. I am enclosing copies of all correspondance so far as they have now asked if there are any known relatives, which of course you are, they will probably be in touch with you then at least you have a little knowledge of what is happening.

We have already sent the DeathCertificate.

The amount we are speaking of is around £1870.00

We still have a little cash in safe keeping in case the total cost is more.
I hope everything meets with your approval.

Yours sincerely,

Glenda Hall

p.s. The approximate Cost of the Headstone will be £600 —
